WITH A SACK OF PURITY FLOUR

on his shoulder good old Santa Claus would be a welcome visitor in many a household. Try a bag of PURITY FLOUR yourself and you'll know how more than good it is. Then if you feel like remembering some less fortunate one, you'll know what kind of flour will give the best and most service to the one who needs it.

Challenges Roosevelt.

Poultney Bigelow, the magazine writer, in a statement Tuesday said that if President Roosevelt really intends to institute criminal proceedings against those who may have criticized the management and jobbery of the Isthmian Canal, he may start with Bigelow. Bigelow declared he would like nothing better than the whole truth about the condition of affairs in the Canal Zone be brought out.

MATRIMONIAL.

—A quiet, yet beautiful wedding was that of yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when Miss Harriet Juanita Hudson and Mr. Leonidas Andersen Bell were united in marriage at the home of the bride's foster-parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harris, on Pleasant street.

The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Harvey Smith, of Louisville, a brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by Rev. M. T. Chandler, of the Methodist church.

The house was beautifully and artistically decorated throughout with white flowers and green foliage. The bride never looked lovelier than in the Empire wedding gown of peacock blue dictionerie satin and white picture hat as she leaned upon the arm of the handsome groom, when they took the solemn vows that made them one.

The bride is the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Harris, and is a handsome, attractive and accomplished young woman, and by her cheerful and amiable disposition makes friends with all whom she comes in contact with.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Bell, of Georgetown, and is now manager of the Paris Electric Light plant, and since his short stay in Paris has become one of our most popular young business men. We congratulate him on winning this charming young woman for his life partner.

The bride's traveling dress was a very becoming suit of Wisteria broad cloth with hat to match. They left after the ceremony on the 3:30 L. & N. train for a short stay in Cincinnati. Upon their return they will take board with Mr. and Mrs. Harris for the remainder of the winter.

The popular couple received sixty beautiful presents in silver and cut glass.

Those present from Georgetown, the former home of the groom were: Mrs. John A. Bell, Misses Fannie and Lila Bell, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bell, Miss Sara Beall, Miss Fannie Shropshire, and Miss Frankie Thompson.

—Miss Josephine 'Hodges and Mr. William J. Arnett, of Harriman, Tenn. were united in marriage at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Grinnan on South Main Street at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. Elder Carey E. Morgan officiating. The bride came to Paris recently from Jacksonville, Fla., and had charge of the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company. The bridegroom is a telegraph operator at Harriman, Mr. and Mrs. Arnett left on the 8 o'clock interurban car for Lexington, where they took a train on the Queen & Crescent railroad for their home in Tennessee.

—The marriage of Mrs. Mary Dejarrette Howe to James E. Gray, both of near Paris, was solemnized at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday at the residence of Elder Carey E. Morgan the officiating minister. The attendants were Mrs. Sallie Erion, sister of the bride, and Mr. John Gray, brother of the bridegroom. The bride was attractive in a suit of white cloth, with hat and gloves to match. She is the daughter of Mr. Robert L. Dejarrette and resides with her father on the Bethlehem pike, and was recently given a divorce from Russell Howe. The bridegroom is a well-to-do Bourbon county farmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray left on the 3:30 p. m. train on a bridal trip to Indiana, where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Gray's sister, Mrs. Edward Shekell, in Peru.

—The announcement of the engagement of Miss Virginia Carroll Kelly to Mr. Howell Colston Featherstone, has been received here by friends and relatives.

Miss Kelly is the daughter of Rev. Dr. Gilby C. Kelly, pastor of the Broad Street Methodist Episcopal church, of Richmond, Va. and a niece of Mrs. Col. E. F. Clay, of Bourbon.

The prospective bridegroom is a son of Hon. H. C. Featherstone, of Lynchburg, and is a member of the Virginia legislature from his native county.

—County Clerk Paton issued yesterday a marriage license to Mr. John T. Conway and Miss Hattie S. Cleaver.

BUTLER-SHOBE.

The handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Butler, on Vine street, was the scene Tuesday afternoon of one of the most beautiful weddings ever celebrated in Paris, when their daughter, Miss Margaret Prescott Butler, became the bride of Mr. William Merritt Shobe, of Salem, New Jersey.

The color scheme of the decorations was white and green and was elaborately carried out. Ropes of southern smilax fell in graceful folds from the archway separating the parlor from the music room and were caught on either side with bouquets of white roses. The mantles were banked with ferns and growing plants. The border around the ceiling was hung with smilax and holly. Vases and cut glass bowls of carnations and white roses added their beauty and fragrance completing a picture of tropical beauty.

The stairway from which the bridal party came was draped in smilax and holly, and the pedestal at the foot of the stairs was dotted with white roses.

The library where the large number of handsome and costly presents of silver, cut glass, china and chests of imported linens, were to be seen, was garlanded with smilax, asparagus and holly and the mantels banked with vases of ferns and carnations.

The dining room was tastefully decorated in smilax, ropes of which fell from the chandelier to the four corners of the table, the covering of which was lace over green. The green candles in silver and cut glass candelabra cast a
